Committee Updates

Public Relations: Hillary-

- Scholarship is up on the website
- Factbook is almost done just a few more things to change
- Reached out to the Boise printing company to make sure we were good, and it should be easy this year
- Printed 30 factbooks last year for $170. What amount do we want to print this year? 30 sounds good

Government Relations: Danielle-

- Sending out Legislative updates weekly through the listserv, once session is over a wrap-up update will be sent out.
- Was on the first gen summit meeting to serve as a liaison between the two committees.

Scholarship: Chewy-

- The IATP scholarship is officially open! Yesterday I sent it out to the IATP listserv, so check for that email. Details of the scholarship, and the application link have also been posted on the IATP website. Deadline to apply is Friday, March 31st
- Full committee of 6, so hopefully reading applications won't be a problem

Membership: Maurice- Focusing on the conference not really membership

- Looking for someone to help with membership
- Conference is beautiful Pocatello Idaho, getting sponsors, getting things on the website, and answering and clarifying questions
- Sending out a letter asking for silent auction items

Endowment: Holly- Absent

Alumni Relations:-Vacant

Old Business:

IATP Folders

- Janelle has a proposal for how the shared drive should be set up
- More collaboration and structure needs to mimic this - one main drive for everyone
  - More organized so we don't have to have a bunch of shared folders
  - Each committee has its own folder by year
  - Having trainings to implement the folders so everyone understands

New Business:

- Alumni Committee Update-We are going to have an alumni committee, Eric and LeAnna will be taking it over.
  - They will be gathering data from the institutions so they can make a plan for alumni in the state.
